INTERESTS IN REAL ESTATE

It is the policy of the Department that all agreements for the acquisition, transfer, exchange, or disposition of any interest in real property by the Department, exclusive of routine permitting, will be reviewed by the Department's Office of General Counsel. No such agreement may be executed on behalf of the Department without the signature of a Department attorney indicating that the agreement has received legal review. The Office of General Counsel will expedite the review to ensure compliance with all applicable deadlines.
